Sir:

Applicant requests reconsideration of the Commissioner's determination of patent term adjustment (PTA) as indicated on the Patent that issued March 20, 2007. In particular, Applicant requests restoration of 120 days of PTA erroneously charged against Applicant under 37 C.F.R. § 1.704(c)(10).

This Application is filed less than two months after the issue date of the patent and is therefore timely. (37 C.F.R. § 1.705(d)) The Office is directed and authorized to charge Deposit Account No. 19-4880 for the required fee as specified in §1.18(e) ($200.00).

Facts

1. Attached is a printout of the Office's determination of PTA for this patent, as provided on PAIR. The net PTA shown on the printout is 1104 days.

2. (§ 1.705)(b)(2)(i)). For the following reasons, the correct PTA to which this patent is entitled is 1224 days.

3. (§ 1.705)(b)(2)(ii)). The examination delays under § 1.702(a) and § 1.703, are the following:

(a) 30 days for failing to mail the Restriction Requirement within 14 months of filing, for the interval between May 30, 2000 and August 29, 2001 (correctly shown on the PAIR printout).

(b) 11 days for the interval between March 9, 2007 and March 20, 2007 for delay in issue that is more than four months from the date the Issue Fee was paid (correctly shown on the PAIR printout).

(c) 1096 days for the difference between the interval from filing on May 30, 2003 to issue on March 20, 2007 (1390 days) minus the interval from filing an RCE on June 29, 2006 to issue on March 20, 2007 (264 days) minus the 30 day overlap with (a) above.

The sum of these delays is 1137 days (§ 1.703(f)) (correctly shown in the PAIR printout).

4. (§ 1.705)(2)(iii)). This application is not subject to a terminal disclaimer.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT

U.S. Appln. No.: 09/580,523 (USP 7,193,044)

Atty. Docket No.: A7483

5. This application was accorded a USPTO Adjustment of 667 days, in response to the Application for Patent Term Adjustment filed November 7, 2006 (368 days to compensate for incorrect calculation of Applicant's delay plus 314 days of PTO actual delay minus 15 days of Applicant's actual delay) (correctly shown in the PAIR printout)

6. (§ 1.705)(2)(iv)(A). Reductions to Patent Term

(a) The reductions under § 1.704 as shown on the attached PAIR printout which Applicant believes to be correct are the following:

(i) 2 days for failing to file a Response to a Non-Final Office Action within three months, for the interval between December 19, 2001 and March 21, 2002.

(ii) 29 days for failing to file a Response to a Final Office Action within three months, for the interval between June 19, 2002 and October 18, 2002.

(iii) 31 days for failing to file a Response to a Non-Final Office Action within three months, for the interval between July 12, 2004 and November 12, 2004.

(iv) 58 days for failing to file a Response to a Non-Final Office Action within three months, for the interval between February 10, 2005 and July 7, 2005.

(v) 92 days for failing to file a Response to a Final Office Action within three months, for the interval between December 29, 2005 and June 29, 2006.

U.S. Appln. No.: 09/580,523 (USP 7,193,044)

Atty. Docket No.: A7483

(b) In addition, the 368 day incorrect entry for a Response after Non-Final Action on April 19, 2004 was compensated for in the Adjustment of PTA Calculation by PTO and, thus, is added to Applicant's delay

(c). The PAIR entry of 120 days for a Miscellaneous Incoming Letter filed September 20, 2006 does not correspond to a failure by Applicant to engage in reasonable efforts to engage in prosecution.

The sum of Applicant's delay and the incorrect entry of 368 days in 6(b) above is 580 days ( $2+29+31+58+92+368 = 580$ ).

Discussion

The Miscellaneous Incoming Letter filed September 20, 2006 is an electronically filed Request for Recordation of Assignment, inadvertently filed in the file wrapper. The Request for Recordation of Assignment appears to have been mistakenly interpreted as a Submission under 37 C.F.R. § 1.704(c)(10), which requires a response by the Examiner. However, no response on the part of the Examiner was called for. The Examiner just needed to ignore the paper, as he did. Nonetheless, the paper seems to have been treated as a separate paper for PALM to flag.

Because the paper did not require any action on the part of the Examiner, it did not constitute any new action corresponding to a failure to engage in reasonable efforts to conclude prosecution. Thus the paper should not have been treated as a new filing that was part of the prosecution of the application.

Conclusion

Applicant respectfully requests correction of the Office's records and adjustment of the Office's calculation of term adjustment by adding 120 days of patent term adjustment, making the total adjustment 1224 days (667 days of USPTO adjustment + 1137 days of Office delay - 580 days of Applicant delay).
